- Have any ideas for future programs, please email Pat Clark. Also, consider being a presenter, if you have a skill, talent, or special knowledge to share (does not have to be directly linked to education).
- Know any women who would be strong additions to our sisterhood, submit their names to Robin Loy.

DELTA CHAPTER HAPPENINGS

2022-23

Kick-Off (September 13th)

At our 1st chapter meeting of the 2022-2023 year, sisters gathered at GK's Café. After our official meeting, we continued to enjoy fellowship and fun. A DKG trivia game showed that Michelle Hairston and Ruth Hicks are our resident experts. Each won a plant (and the right to be questioned at any time about DKG or Delta Chapter details!) Ruth Jones and Mary Elizabeth Dailey won Starbucks gift cards in the raffle.

Committee Rush (October 11th)

After official business at our next chapter meeting, we will organize into committee groups. Each group will look at its purpose and function and come up with plans for the 2022-23 year. If you missed the last meeting and have not pledged a committee yet, see the list below and find your niche next week:

Personal Growth & Services

World Fellowship

Communications (newsletter or website)

Social Affairs

Finance

Yearbook

Grant-in-Aid/Scholarship

Membership

Nominations

Philanthropy: Got books?

Most educators have a few stacks of books gathering dust around the home, and we all want to promote reading in others. Why not take a little time this week to sift through your collection for some gently used gems to DONATE or SWAP at our October meeting? Already culled this year? Pick up a book or two next time you are out and donate those.

We are looking for books for ANY AGE—from those just beginning to recognize words to those who have been enjoying reading for decades.

We'll sort the books into age groups and then donate them around town to shelters, tiny libraries (those colorful boxes you see around town), to community centers, and after school programs.

Others can go into the swap pile for cash or trade in, if you want to leave with a soon-to-be new favorite or help contribute to the fund to purchase a few more.

No books to bring? Stay a little after the meeting to help us pack the donations and/or help deliver them throughout the community in the coming days. We will also need a few sturdy boxes, if you have any to spare.

Highlights from the 2022 DKG Convention

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society welcomed approximately 900 members from 17 countries to the 2022 DKG International Convention in New Orleans, Louisiana, July 12-16, 2022. The convention opened with an inspiring presentation of each member country's flag. DKG President Becky Sadowski called the convention to order and welcomed attendees. She then introduced Ted Pennison from New Orleans & Company, who surprised attendees by sponsoring a DKG Second Line Parade complete with a marching band. The parade wound through the streets of New Orleans and ended at the Sazerac House event, where members enjoyed a tour, beverage tasting, and hors d'oeuvres.

PRESIDENT'S LOCKER ROOM MESSAGE

Dear Sisters,

I hope you made it through the storm okay and are enjoying these cooler temperatures. I am looking forward to seeing everyone on October 11th for our meeting at McAlister's Deli. My hope is that at the end of our meeting that night, we will have a blueprint for our chapter and a solid slate of committees with plans to serve our community and our sisters in education. Our chapter is only as strong as our members, so please try to make every effort to attend next Tuesday with your thinking cap and servant's heart!

In Sisterhood,

Lauren
